DANIEL 12 (NIV)

⁵Then I, Daniel, looked, and there before me stood two others, one on this bank of the river and one on the opposite bank. ⁶One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was (See Page 2)

Daniel, the king's officer, announced additional details concerning the prophetic visions he has recently received. He had promised to do so after receiving an initial vision.

"I've kept a journal of these encounters," said Daniel, "and today I'm sharing it with the people in hopes they will better understand what lies ahead."

The journal scrolls, in the protective custody of palace guards, are on display in the outer court of the palace and will be available to the public indefinitely.

The prophet has given The Daily Triumph permission to publish excerpts from his journals:

The vision I saw was both startling and inspiring. It started when a man clothed in linen tried to explain to me what the end would be like. At first, I was fearful of the things he said. He told me there would be a time of great distress. We would face tragedy that hasn't happened since the beginning of time. I was afraid.

But as he continued, I began to feel at peace. The visitor said those who are wise, those whose names are found written in the book would be saved, even if we had long been dead. Eternal life will be ours.

He explained that we would be purified, despite the wickedness around us. This encounter gave me hope. And I will lean on that hope when tragedy strikes. I will know that one day, we will live in a land where there's no more destruction, but in a time when we will receive our reward for the work we have done.

"I hope that my recollections will encourage everyone," Daniel said, "as we look ahead at God's plan for the world and his people."

above the waters of the river, “How long will it be before these astonishing things are fulfilled?”

⁷The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, lifted his right hand and his left hand toward heaven, and I heard him swear by him who lives forever, saying, “It will be for a time, times and half a time. When the power of the holy people has been finally broken, all these things will be completed.”

⁸I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, “My lord, what will the outcome of all this be?”

⁹He replied, “Go your way, Daniel, because the words are rolled up and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will understand.

¹¹ “From the time that the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. ¹²Blessed is the one who waits for and reaches the end of the 1,335 days.

¹³ “As for you, go your way till the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days you will rise to receive your allotted inheritance.”

How did you end up in community ministry?

I realized the Christian life was more than religious activity. I began to live out the Gospel and my new identity in everyday life by loving my neighbor as Jesus. Eventually, God opened doors which led to a community minister role at OHC.

What do you enjoy most about your neighborhood?

My neighborhood is a place where God has placed a family of believers that love God, and love each other. We regularly hang out in the neighborhood discovering the teachings of Jesus, and how our faith in His teachings leads us to love God, care for one another, and meet the needs of our neighborhood.

How have you seen God at work through one of your community groups?

Bible Club created an environment for a mother and her daughter to be touched by their neighbors through activities about Jesus. They summarized their experience saying, "God is great! It's just amazing how God places these little seeds in your life and allows you to grow. I know this is where we need to be. We now have a family."

How did you end up in community ministry?

In the early stages of the Outer West Campus planning, five years ago, my wife and I acted as lay leaders with the elders and community minister. Two years ago, I was asked and interviewed to represent the O'Connor HS area as a community minister, where I am today.

What do you enjoy most about your neighborhood?

The fellowship we have with neighbors, encouragement, and growing in the body as a community. My wife and I have hosted a neighborhood group for the last five years. The group has banded together helping to serve those in need, started Bible studies and gathered for celebrations in different homes.

How have you seen God at work through one of your community groups?

Blessing through service—serving a sister in need by moving her two different times. Serving by providing meals for a family of 4 during recovery from a very serious surgery the wife underwent. In both events, God's love covered those served with encouragement and peace in difficult circumstances.

CHALLENGE

FAMILY MILESTONES

Challen8e is a one-night service retreat, for eighth grade students and their parents, that culminates with a time of blessing. Throughout the Challen8e weekend, parents are provided the opportunity to guide their children through significant conversations around three important topics:

TRUTH

Equip students with the knowledge that their relationship with Christ, the Truth, will be their guide through life.

FAMILY IDENTITY

Encourage families to grow together as their children grow to be independent young adults.

PURITY

Empower a commitment to purity in all of life through the power of Christ.

Ask your Student Ministry team about Challen8e plans at your campus.

CULTURE

OHC VALUES

With the promise of our destination after life given to us through the Word of God we know where we are going. Our values tell us that “it matters how we get there.” God wants us to reach His desired destination, but He is concerned and involved in how we come through the journey.

We believe our biblical values will guide us as we journey through life both as a church body and individually as we apply them to our families, neighborhoods, schools, and communities. As you live these values you will see that they are all interconnected like a finely woven fabric; each impacting the other in big ways.

Imagine seeing unity throughout the Body of Christ and watching it extend into your family and community. Imagine grace, truth, and faith planting itself in your core and broadening its roots to your relationships and interactions with every person in your life. As these bleed into your life, your family as the core teaching and discipling center will grow and be an example to all the families in your neighborhood. While people in your neighborhood see this they will want to be a part of Christ’s community and we will enthusiastically welcome them because we value inclusivity. And as this cycle continues and every believer ministers in their own way to those around them, people are constantly changing because of God, who we seek in all decisions through prayer.

COMICS

I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward, so that no animal could withstand him.

I saw the goat confronting the ram; he was moved with rage against him. He attacked the ram.

There was no power in the ram to withstand the goat, for the goat cast him down to the ground and trampled him. No one could deliver him. Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in place of it four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven.
